After months and months of quarantine followed by an array of alternate schedules the Three Rivers Public School System is returning to a normal schedule. Rather the kids like it or not they will no longer be able to google test questions.

High School Principal Carrie Balk who has been bending to corporate will for nearly a full year now has shown that she has had enough of this bull *. Many teachers have affirmed that Ms. Bulk is at her wit's end.

With the inevitable shock of normality soon to come we only pray to salvage what is left of the school year. -Famous Philosopher Nick Minnard
